A DICTIONARY OF THE PATHAN TRIBES

OF THE

NORTH-WEST FRONTIER OF INDIA

Prepared by the Central Staff Corps Headquarters, India.

CALCUTTA,
SUPERINTENDENT GOVERNMENT PRINTING, INDIA.
1910.
CONTENTS.

Part I.—All Pathan tribes north of the Kabul river and east of the Indus . . . . . . . . . 1 to 31

Part II.—Tribes between the Kabul and Kunar rivers, including the Taris . . . . . . . 33 to 69

Part III.—Tribes between the Kunar and Gomal rivers, and those on the Derajat border . . . . . . . . 70 to 200

Part IV.—Pathan tribes south of the Gomal and tribes, such as the Shihab, which occupy country on both sides of the border between the North-West Frontier Province and Baluchistan . . . . . 201 to 302
The classification adopted in this dictionary is as follows:

1. The tribe.
2. The clan of the tribe.
3. The division of the clan.
4. The sub-division of the division.
5. The section of the sub-division.
6. Other minor fractions of the section.

The headings in the dictionary read from the lesser to the greater; thus, "DARD Kehl" are a minor fraction of the Drophra section, of the Khurangi subdivision, of the Nasrullah division, of the Zalika Khel clan, of the Afridi tribe.

Figures in brackets indicate the number of the fighting men of the faction immediately preceding the figures.

The locality of the tribe, clan, or division, etc., is also given within brackets, where this is capable of accurate definition, and is not sufficiently indicated in the name of the tribe, clan, etc. In many cases the names of the headmen have been given.

"GAR" and "SAMIL"—These terms refer to the two political factions into which the tribes on the Peshawar and Kohat borders are divided. At some remote period a bitter feud existed between the Gar and Samil branches of the... great Bengal tribe, and all the neighbouring tribes appear to have joined one faction or the other; although the origin of the quarrel has been forgotten the division still remains.

'SUNNI' AND 'SHI'AH.'—The vast majority of the frontier tribesmen belong to the former sect; and this may be assumed to be the case where not otherwise expressly stated.

'HAMZIANS.'—Vagabond or dependent settlers, amongst an alien tribe.

This dictionary only gives the Pathan or Pashto-speaking tribes within the Durand Line. Tribes, which are Afghan subjects, are only mentioned, when the tribe in question dwells on both sides of the border, or when for any reason we have political dealings with it. Also, tribes within the administrative border under our rule are not, in most cases, given in full detail.

The distinction made by Dr. Bellew, between Afghan and Pathan tribes is not observed in the dictionary, the words, Afghan and Pathan, being taken as practically synonymous terms for the people who call themselves Pakhtana or Pakhtana, plural of Pakhtan (or Pakhtus).

APPENDIX I.

The following note by Captain A. H. McMahoit, C.S.I., C.I.E., Political Agent, Uir, Swat and Chitral, explains the various spiritual titles and denominations in use among Pathans.

"The denominations under which the descendants of all Muhammadan spiritual leaders come according to Pathan, and I might say Indian (Cpeal), are, in order of spiritual rank, as follows:—

1. Saiyad. This is the term given to descendants of the Prophet. Owing to their large numbers and varying circumstances, it does not follow that a Saiyad, in such a guise, gives precedence over other spiritual denominations, but a Saiyad who comes into prominence as a religious man, takes precedence of all other religious denominations.

2. Mian. These are the descendants of saints and spiritual leaders who have acquired a wide reputation among many tribes, and have a nearly local reputation. All Saints are, or are supposed to be, descendants of saints of more remote antiquity. The term is not given to descendants of modern saints, but some of these may in course of time become Mians. The remarks made regarding Saiyads apply to Mians also. The principal saints of this class on the northern frontier are ranked as follows:

(1) Pir Baba of Balakot, Buner (as a Saiyad, he ranks first).
(2) Kaka Sahib of Nowshera.
(3) Ratan Sahib, of Akora.
(4) Mian Omar, at Gahmir near Peshawar. He died childless, but his disciples have claimed the rank of Mian as if descendants.

(5) Raja Sahib, of Kohat.
(6) Dost Mahomed, of Hunza.

Note.—(a) The Akhund of Swat does not as yet rank in this class. His descendants are given the title of Miangul by courtesy. They should, strictly speaking, be only Akhundzadas. If

(b) The Akhund of Swat does not as yet rank in this class."

"SAIYADS. A true Saiyad is the descendant of Ali, the son-in-law of Muhammad, by Fatima, Muhammad's daughter. Many of the Pathan tribes, such as the Bangash of Kohat, and the Mishwanis of the Haidera border, claim Saiyad origin. The apostles who completed the conversion of the Pathans to Islam were called Saiyads if they came from the west, and Sheikhs if from the east. In modern Afghanistan, many Pathan tribes claim to Saiyad origin. In Afghanistan the Saiyads have much of the commerce in their hands, yet their hajj character allows them to pass unharmed, where other Pathans would infallibly be murdered."

"SEEKH is an Arabic word meaning elder or chief. It is a title properly confined to members of this class, but it is very commonly used to denote any person in that rank."
the family kept up their spiritual record, which is doubtful, future descendants may in time be classed as Muhms.

3) The Korhees are ranked as Muhms.

3. AKHUNDZADAS—Sometimes known also as Pirzadas. They are descendents of chiefs of merely local or tribal reputations. Thus we have Al-Koylee of Khal (Dir), of Mayar (Kandh), of Second Allah Seckh, and so on. The descendents of "Mushlti A!aaz" are entitled to Akhundzada, because Male Muhms A!aaz is only if an Akhundzada, otherwise they would be only Muhms.

4. SARHIDAS—These are descendents of mulls who have gained a reputation for learning or sanctity. As such are classed the descendents of the Kotah Mulla, Murad Mulla, Adda Mulla, Karpotha Mulla, etc.

All of the above classes are, according to Pathan custom, entitled to grants of free land called Seri. The amount of land varies, as a general rule, according to the above-mentioned ranks. Lands on the border between two villages, disputed lands, and lands which for some reason or other are difficult to hold, are generally given as Seri, as the religious status of their holders makes them useful buffers and enables them to enjoy disputed lands in peace.

* Korhees or Quochee is the name of the Arab tribe to which the Prophet belonged. The Khores of the Punjab are mostly descendents of Daud Malek, the second son of Ismail.

* The religious and military leader of the Muslims in the 2nd Afghan War.
