A

DICTIONARY OF THE PATHAN TRIBES

ON THE

NORTH-WEST FRONTIER OF INDIA,

COMPILED

UNDER THE ORDERS OF THE QUARTER MASTER GENERAL IN INDIA, IN THE INTELLIGENCE BRANCH.

CALCUTTA:
OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT, GOVERNMENT PRINTING, INDIA.
1899.
PREFACE.

THIS work has been compiled with a view to providing an index to the numerous ramifications of the Pathan tribes of the North-West Frontier, in such a form that any obscure sub-division may be easily referred to its proper tribal position; but all detailed particulars of the history and genealogy of the tribes, such as may be found in larger works of reference, have been excluded. In order also to diminish the bulk of the work without greatly decreasing its utility, certain cis-frontier Pathan tribes (including the divisions, etc., of the Bangash and Khattaks) have been omitted; the Turis, however, have been included.

J. WOLFE MURRAY, Lieut.-Colonel,
Assistant Quarter Master General,
Intelligence Branch.

SIMLA;
1st June 1899.
EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The classification adopted in this dictionary is as follows:

1. The tribe.
2. The clan of the tribe.
3. The division of the clan.
4. The subdivision of the division.
5. The section of the subdivision.
6. Other minor fractions of the section.

The headings in the dictionary read from the lesser to the greater, thus; — DADU KHEL are a minor fraction of the Dreplara section, of the Khusrogi subdivision, of the Nasruddin division, of the Zakha Khel clan, of the Afridi tribe.

Figures in brackets indicate the number of the fighting men of the fraction immediately preceding the figures.

The locality of the tribe, clan, or division, etc., is also given within brackets, where this is capable of accurate definition, and is not sufficiently indicated in the name of the tribe, clan, etc. In many cases the names of the headmen have been given.

"GAR" AND "SAMIL"—These terms refer to the two political factions into which the tribes on the Peshawar and Kohat borders are divided. At some remote period a bitter feud existed between the Gar and Samil branches of the great Bangash tribe, and all the neighbouring tribes appear to have joined one faction or the other; although the origin of the quarrel has been forgotten, the division still remains.

"SUNIS" AND "SHIAHS."—The vast majority of the frontier tribesmen belong to the former sect; and this may be assumed to be the case where not otherwise expressly stated.

"HAMSAYAS."—Vassal or dependent settlers, amongst an alien tribe.

The apostles who completed the conversion of the Pathans to Islam where called Saitads if they came from the west, and Sheikhs if from the east; hence doubtless, many false claims to Saitad origin. In Afghanistan the Saitads have much of the commerce in their hands, as their holy character allows them to pass unharmed where other Pathans would infallibly be murdered.

APPENDIX I.

The following note by Captain A. H. McMahon, C.S.I., C.I.E., Political Agent, Dir, Swat and Chitral, explains the various spiritual titles and denominations in use among Pathans.

"The denominations under which the descendants of all Muhammadan spiritual leaders come (according to Pathan, and I might say Indian, usage), are, in order of spiritual rank, as follows:—

1. Saiads.—This is the term given to descendants of the Prophet. Owing to their large number and varying circumstances, it does not follow that a Saiad, as such, is given precedence over other spiritual denominations, but a Saiad who comes into prominence as a religious man takes precedence of all other religious denominations.

2. Mians.—These are the descendants of saints and spiritual leaders who have acquired a wide reputation among many tribes, and not a merely local reputation. All Mians are, or are supposed to be, descendants of saints of some past century. The term is not given to descendants of modern saints, but some of these may in course of time become Mians. The remarks made regarding Saiads apply to Mians also. The principal saints of this class on the northern frontier are ranked as follows:—

(1) Pir Baba of Ilai, Buner (as a Saiad, he ranks first).

(2) Kaka Sahib of Nowshera.

(3) Hazrat Ji, near Attock."
(4) Mian Umar, in Chamkanni territory. He died childless, but his disciples have claimed the rank of Mians, as if descendants.

(5) Haji Bahadur, of Kohat.

(6) Diwana Baba, of Buner.

Note.—(a) The Akhund of Swat does not yet rank in this class. His descendants are given the title of Miangul by courtesy. They should, strictly speaking, be only Akhundzadas. If the family keep up their spiritual record, which is doubtful, future descendants may in time be classed as Mians.

(b) The Korenis* are ranked as Mians.

3. Akhundzadas.—Sometimes known also as Pirzadas. These are descendants of saints of merely local or tribal reputation. Thus we have Akhundzadas of Khal (Dir), of Mayar (Jaudol), of Bamboli (Adinzai, Swat), and so on. The descendants of "Mushki Alam"† are classed as Akhundzadas because mulla Mushki Alam was himself an Akhundzada, otherwise they would be only Sahibzadas.

4. Sahibzadas.—These are descendants of mullas who have gained a reputation for learning or sanctity. As such are classed the descendants of the Kotah mulla, Manki mulla, Adda mulla, Karbogha mulla, etc.

All of the above classes are, according to Pathan custom, entitled to grants of free land called Seri. The amount of land varies, as a general rule, according to the above-described ranks. Lands on the border between two villages, disputed lands, and lands which for some reason or other are difficult to hold, are generally given as Seri, as the religious status of their holders makes them useful buffers and enables them to enjoy disputed lands in peace."

*Koreshi or Qureshi is the name of the Arab tribe to which the Prophet belonged. The Koreshis of the Punjab are mostly descendants of Bahawal Hak, the renowned saint of Multan.

†The religious and military leader of the Ghilzais in the 2nd Afghan War.
