A DICTIONARY OF THE PATHAN TRIBES ON THE NORTH-WEST FRONTIER OF INDIA
CONTENTS.

Part I.—All Pathan tribes north of the Kabul river and east of the Indus . . . . . . 1 to 41

Part II.—Tribes between the Kabul and Kunar rivers, including the Turks . . . . . . 43 to 69

Part III.—Tribes between the Kunar and Gomal rivers, and those on the Derajat border . . . . . 70 to 99

Part IV.—Pathan tribes south of the Gomal and tribes such as the Kohistsan, which occupy country on both sides of the border between the North-West Frontier Province and Baluchistan . . . . 201 to 222
EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The classification adopted in this dictionary is as follows:

1. The tribe.
2. The clan of the tribe.
3. The division of the clan.
4. The sub-division of the division.
5. The section of the sub-division.
6. Other minor fractions of the section.

The headings in the dictionary read from the lesser to the greater; thus, "DASP KELA" are a minor fraction of the Deplaha section, of the Khurangi subdivision, of the Nasroodin division, of the Zakka Khel clan, of the Afridi tribe.

Figures in brackets indicate the number of the fighting men of the fraction immediately preceding the figures.

The locality of the tribe, clan, or division, etc., is also given within brackets, where this is capable of accurate definition, and is not sufficiently indicated in the name of the tribe, clan, etc. In many cases the names of the headmen have been given.

"GAR" and "SAMIL."—These terms refer to the two political factions into which the tribes on the Peshawar and Kohat borders are divided. At some remote period a bitter feud existed between the Gar and Samil branches of the great Bengal tribes, and all the neighbouring tribes appear to have joined one faction or the other; although the origin of the quarrel has been forgotten the division still remains.

"SUNNI" and "SHI'AH."—The vast majority of the frontier tribesmen belong to the former sect; and this may be assumed to be the case where not otherwise expressly stated.

"HIMALAYANS."—Vagabond or dependent settlers, amongst an alien tribe.

This dictionary only gives the Pathan or Pashto-speaking tribes within the Durand Line. Tribes, which are Afghan subjects, are only mentioned, when the tribe in question dwells on both sides of the border, or when for any reason we have political dealings with it. Also, tribes within the administrative border under our rule are not, in most cases, given in full detail.

The distinction, made by Dr. Bellew, between Afghan and Pathan tribes is not observed in the dictionary, the words, Afghan and Pathan, being taken as practically synonymous terms for the people who call themselves Poshis or Poshins (or Pakhtoons), plural of Poshtoon (or Pakhtun).

Strictly speaking, the Shiranis are divided into 6 clans, i.e., Oba Khel, Marhel, Kapip, Haripal, Hasan Khel, and Obuhar Khel. All of them trace their descent to Omar, eldest son of Shiran. The Babars and Mianis, who are sometimes called Shiranis, are descended from Babar and Mian, younger brothers of Shiran.

The fighting men of the Babars are included among those of the Bargha Shiranis, given above. Miani is not recognized as a tribal name in Baluchistan, but certain tribes, such as the Lunis and Jafars, are supposed to be descended from them.

The following note by Captain A. H. McMahoit, C.S.I., C.I.E., Political Agent, Buner, Swat and Chitral, explains the various spiritual titles and denominations in use among Pathans.

The denominations under which the descendants of all Muhammadan spiritual leaders come according to Pathan, and I might say Indian (C. I.E.), are, in order of spiritual rank, as follows:

1. Saiyad. This is the term given to descendants of the Prophet. Owing to their large number and varying circumstances, it does not follow that a Saiyad, as such, is given precedence over other spiritual denominations, but a Saiyad who comes into prominence as a religious man, takes precedence of all other religious denominations.

2. Mian. These are the descendants of saints and spiritual leaders who have acquired a wide reputation among many tribes, and have a nearly local reputation. All Mians are, or are supposed to be, descendants of saints of more or less antiquity. The term is not given to descendants of modern saints, but some of those may in course of time become Mianas. The remarks made regarding Saiyads apply to Mians also. The principal saints of this class on the northern frontier are ranked as follows:
   - (1) Pir Baba of Ilai, Buner (as a Saiyad, he ranks first).
   - (2) Kaka Sahib of Nowshera.
   - (3) Haidari, of Barki.
   - (4) Mir Omur, at Ghurkani near Peshawar. He died childless, but his disciples have claimed the rank of Mian as if descendants.
   - (5) Hayat Shabaz, of Kohat.
   - (6) Mirza Sahib, of Buner.

Note:-(a) The Akhund of Swat does not yet rank in this class. His descendants are given the title of Miangul by courtesy. They should, strictly speaking, be only Miangulas. If

(b) The Akhund of Swat does not yet rank in this class. His descendants are given the title of Miangul by courtesy. They should, strictly speaking, be only Miangulas. If

(c) The Akhund of Swat does not yet rank in this class. His descendants are given the title of Miangul by courtesy. They should, strictly speaking, be only Miangulas. If

The apostles who completed the conversion of the Pathans to Islam were called Saiyads if they came from the west, and Sheikhs if from the east; hence doubtless many false claims to Saiyad origin. In Afghanistan the Saiyads have much of the commerce in their hands, as their holy character allows them to pass unharmed, where other Pathans would infallibly be murdered.

Seech is an Arabic word meaning elder or chief. It is a title properly confined to members of the race, but is very commonly used to denote a general in Islam.
the family keep up their spiritual record, which is doubtful, future descendants may in time be classed as Mirees.

(1) The Korshies are ranked as Mirees.

3. AKHUNDZADAS—Sometimes known also as Pirzadas. These are descendants of men of merely local or tribal reputation. Thus we have a village of Khal (Dir), of Kaur (Jandol), of Konde’s Afsah, Swat, and so on. The descendants of ‘Mushki Afsah’ are ranked as Akhundzadas, because Mushki Afsah was ranked as an Akhundzada, otherwise they would be only Pirzadas.

4. SARSHIDAS—These are descendants of mullahs who have gained a reputation for learning or sanctity. As such are classed the descendants of the Khal Suleh, Mushki Mulla, Adda Mulla, Sarngaho Mulla, etc.

All of these classes are, according to Pathan custom, entitled to grants of free land called Seri. The amount of land varies, as a general rule, according to the above-described ranks. lands on the border between two villages, disputed lands, and lands which for some reason or other are difficult to hold, are generally given as Seri to the religious status of their holders makes them useful buffers and enables them to enjoy disputed lands in peace.”

* Korshik or Qureshi is the name of the Arab tribe to which the Prophet belonged. The Korshik of the Punjab are mostly descendants of Balam al Hak, the reformed sect of Multan.

† The religious and military leader of the Ghilzai in the 2nd Afghan War.
